ICM 1998, Berlin, Aug. 18–27

Abstracts of Short Communications and Posters

Section:

8. Analysis

1991 MS Classification: 30C45
Owa, Shigeyoshi, Department of Mathematics, Kinki University, Japan
Some Properties for Convulutions
Let $\mathcal{A}$ denote the class of analytic functions $f(z)$ normalized by $f(0) = f'(0) - l = 0$ in the open unit disk. The object of the present talk is to show some properties of convolutions (or Hadamard products) of functions in $\mathcal{A}$.