

Title: Noncrossing partitions in representation theory

Abstract: Representations of finite dimensional hereditary algebras provide a categorical model for the study of noncrossing partitions, given by any crystallographic Coxeter group and any choice of a Coxeter element. I will explain this model and my aim is to demonstrate that this approach is useful both for group theorists and representations theorists.