Gelfand models for finite Coxeter groups

Shripad Garge

A Gelfand model for a finite group G is a complex linear representation of G that contains each of its irreducible representations exactly once. In this talk we shall investigate methods for describing Gelfand models for finite Coxeter groups.